

Khuzula

Khuzula is the founder and producer of Azgo Festival, the biggest and best international arts festival in Mozambique. Bringing together a diversified and quality program of music, cinema and dance for the city of Maputo over two days and two nights.

Khula is also the Mozambican and manager of Modigi, it is focused on the promotion of artists through its digital distribution agreement with its www.theorchard.com or music possible the new music of Sony Music, recently becoming the Mozambican music that is being developed available to the world.